Editorial Review

Review

Attractive and refreshing. It does not linger on methodological debates discussing reflexivity, but attempts to provide ? in Smith's words ? a subject position for the critical knower. Clearly written, Institutional Ethnography stands out as a readable but challenging book. (British Journal of Sociology)

About the Author

Dorothy E. Smith is professor emerita in the Department of Sociology & Equity Studies in Education at the University of Toronto and adjunct professor, Department of Sociology, University of Victoria, BC.
