Review

'The world has always believed Wills fell for Kate after watching her on a student fashion catwalk in a see-through dress. But we can reveal their first try at love came months earlier- with Kate huddled in layers of clothes by the side of a chilly St Andrews University rugby pitch... Royal author Sean Smith writes in his new biography of the royal bride: "William has admitted that if he fancies a girl he asks her out- but that day he was lucky in that he didn't really need to ask Kate at all. The two ended up standing next to each other by the touchline and struck up conversation. They found themselves instantly attracted to each other'" Extract, News of the World, 1/5
