Inside the Room: Writing Television with the Pros at UCLA Extension Writers' Program By Linda Venis

What does it take to go from being a fan to professional television writer? For the first time outside of the UCLA Extension Writers' Programme classrooms, TV writers whose many produced credits include The Simpsons, House M.D., and Pretty Little Liars take aspiring writers through the process of writing their first spec script for an on-air series, creating one-hour drama and sitcom pilots that break out from the pack, and revising scripts to meet pro standards. Learn how to launch and sustain a writing career and get a rare, intimate look inside the yearlong process of creating, selling, and getting a TV show made. Edited by writers' program director Linda Venis, Inside the Room is the ultimate guide to writing one's way into the Writers Guild of America. "Venis corrals an accessible and useful guide for anyone with the dream and the drive who needs to know, practically, what to do. An engaging and helpful how-to for hopeful TV writers or anyone interested in the nuts and bolts of this ephemeral art." - Kirkus Reviews

Editorial Review

Review

"The instructors at UCLA Extension are working professionals, they have their own takes on the industry and you know you are getting real, not jaded, opinions about the entertainment business." -Stuart Beattie, screenwriter-director, "Pirates of the Caribbean: The Curse of the Black Pearl" "Before I started taking the [UCLA Extension] classes, I didn't know a lot about the structure and mechanics of screenwriting. Extension has given me a solid grounding in these skills." -Iris Yamashita, Academy Award-nominated screenwriter for Best Original Screenplay, "Letters from Iwo Jima" "The Writers' Program instructors have been out there-they're speaking from experience." -Zoanne Clack, "Grey's Anatomy, ER"

""Inside the Room" should be required reading for anyone embarking on or dreaming of a career in television. Like the classes I took at UCLA Extension when I was starting out, it demystifies the process of becoming a working television writer and tells you how to go about it. Most of all, it lets you know it's possible"

--Carol Barbee, writer/producer, "Touch", "Hawaii Five-O", "Jericho", and "Judging Amy"

"Aspiring television writers have found their bible in" Inside the Room". It is an honest, insightful and incredibly accurate depiction of how the modern television system works. No book can guarantee success, but this one will get you as close as any can!"

--Lee Hollin, Director, Drama Development, CBS Television Studios

"Venis corrals an accessible and useful guide for anyone with the dream and the drive who needs to know, practically, what to do. An engaging and helpful how-to for hopeful TV writers or anyone interested in the nuts and bolts of this ephemeral art."
