Editorial Review

Review

Louis Kincaid is one of my favorite protagonists in all of crime fiction, and this book takes him back to his Michigan roots and beyond anything he's ever experienced before. It's absolutely gut-wrenching and I loved every single page. The PJ Parrish team are two of the best writers in the business, and this book is clearly their best yet. (Steve Hamilton two-time Edgar Award-winning author of Die A Stranger)
